

MANAGER, CONTRACT SERVICES

WFP is currently seeking a Manager of Contract Services to join our Port Alberni Forest Operation. A prized fishing and water sports destination, Port Alberni is in the heart of Vancouver Island with a total population of approximately 20,000 full time residents, in the Valley and west coast communities.

The Manager of Contract Services is a senior role responsible for all operational activities, ensuring continuous improvement in worker safety, operational efficiencies and profitability of the operation. A strategic thinker determined to align production with the business objectives and goals, this position provides a significant opportunity to be involved with the resurgence of the coastal forest industry at a challenging location.

As first point of contact to the Operation's Manager, this position requires in depth knowledge of logging, as a business, the capacity to understand profit & loss statements, and demonstrated leadership abilities in alignment with the Company's values.

The Port Alberni Forest Operation expects to harvest 1.5 million m3 in 2012 while focusing on the highest standards in safety, production, and people development. The successful candidate will also maintain the highest standards:

- Developing and communicating the business with internal and external stakeholders
- Managing relationships, while minimizing corporate risk, through thorough and transparent written and verbal communications
- Directing employees, contractors and other persons with vested interests in our business.

QUALIFICATIONS & REQUIREMENTS:

- A minimum of 10 years' experience in the forestry or wood products sectors
- A minimum of 10 years' experience and a proven track record working with coastal First Nations and the Provincial government.
- Good analytical skills & efficient skills in Microsoft Office applications

The successful candidate will be confident and energetic with strong leadership abilities. He/she will be an open and approachable individual while maintaining the ability to tactfully make hard decisions. A reputation of honesty and demonstrated ability to establish and maintain credibility with a diverse group of interests and backgrounds is key to this position.

The successful candidate will be team orientated with an ability to deliver results that are aligned with the strategic objectives of the business. He/she will have the ability to adopt and encourage innovative thinking that contributes to achieving practical solutions to complex problems.
